

The European Trade Union Institute (ETUI) in cooperation with FAOS - the Employment Relations Research Centre at the Department of Sociology of the University of Copenhagen, cordially invite you to the:

17TH ANNUAL TURI CONFERENCE

6-7 OCTOBER 2025, COPENHAGEN

AGENDA

MONDAY, 6 OCTOBER

FH – Danish Trade Union Confederation (Islands Brygge 32D, 2300 København S)

16:30 Welcome by Bart Vanhercke, Director of the ETUI Research department and Søren Kaj Andersen, Associate professor, FAOS

Introduction of the “Danish model” by Søren Kaj Andersen, Associate professor, FAOS

Roundtable: The social priorities of the Danish Presidency and the perception of the Danish and EU Social Partners

Carsten Sander, Director, International Affairs, Danish Ministry of Employment

Claes-Mikael Ståhl, Deputy General Secretary, European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC)

Christiane Misslbeck-Winberg, Director, European and International Affairs, Head of Brussels Office, Confederation of Danish Employers (DA)

Heidi Rønne, International Secretary, Danish Trade Union Confederation (FH)

Debate with the audience

Chair: Bart Vanhercke, Director of the ETUI Research department

18:00 End of the session

20:00 Joint dinner

The ETUI is financially supported
by the European Union

FAOS etui.

TUESDAY, 7 OCTOBER

Tivoli Hotel and Congress Center (Arni Magnussons Gade 2 - 4, DK-1577 København V)

09:00 – 09:30 Tour de table (updates by the members)

09:30 – 11:00 AI and its impact on employment and job quality in public services in other sectors

Chair: Aida Ponce, ETUI

Technology Assessment and Strategic Foresight from an Employee Perspective, Titus Udrea, AK Wien

Digital rights as collective rights – the Hilfr2 agreement on AI in a European perspective, Anna Ilsøe, FAOS

AI and social dialogue in France : the innovative approach implemented by TU / The specific debate surrounding Public Administration AI strategy, Odile Chagny, IRES

AI, working conditions and industrial relations: some findings from an Italian multi-sectoral study, Salvo Leonardi, FDV

AI challenges for workers across sectors, the UK government's high-risk business-friendly approach to AI regulation, and potential courses of action for unions, Dimitra Kotouza, LRD

11:00 – 11:30 Coffee break

11:30 – 13:00 Trade union responses to the far right

Chair: Bart Vanhercke, ETUI

The relations between The Danish Peoples Party, Dansk Folkeparti, and the social partners, Mikkel Mailand and Christian Ibsen, FAOS

Discussion

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch break

14:00 – 15:30 Can the social and green agenda of the EU survive in an age of competitiveness and insecurity?

Chair: Bart Vanhercke, ETUI

Social Europe in a permacrisis: do competitiveness and security paradigms reshape social rights?, Slavina Spasova, OSE

The ETUI is financially supported
by the European Union

FAOS etui.

Between competitiveness and austerity: what's next for a just, green transition in the EU?, Béla Galgoczi, ETUI

Just transition towards climate neutral economies. Survey of employment in Bulgarian coal mining regions and employed person attitudes to requalification and upskilling, Rositsa Makelova and Boris Bozhilov, ISTURET

An Uneven and Fragmented transition to Electric Vehicles? Evidence from Benelux car, truck and component plants, Yennef Vereycken, HIVA

15:30 – 16:00 Coffee break

16:00 – 17:30 Collective bargaining and the social clauses in public procurement

Chair: Søren Kaj Andersen, FAOS

Tensions and experimentation in setting, extending and enforcing working conditions: case studies of labour clauses in public procurement, Jens Arnholtz, FAOS

Public procurement and collective bargaining in Poland and Slovakia, Simona Brunnerova CELSI

Experimenting with Law: Enforcing Better Industrial Relations? A Case Study of the German Meat Industry, Şerife Erol, WSI

The erosion of industrial relations institutions in the Netherlands, Saskia Boumans and Rein de Sauvage Nolting, De Burcht

20:00 Joint dinner co-offered by FAOS and ETUI

The ETUI is financially supported
by the European Union

FAOS etui.